This form must be filled in by all travellers entering or leaving the National Customs Territory. Indicate above whether it is an Entrance or a Departure, marking the corresponding box with an X.

Securities representing Foreign Currency: If you enter or withdraw from Colombia any Security or title representing Foreign Currency or Colombian Legal Tender in an amount higher than $10,000.oo dollars of the U.S.A or its equivalent in other currencies, you are obliged by law to declare such entrance or departure in this Customs Form. Failure to do so, or making false statements, incomplete, misrepresented or wrong declarations, will result in the retention of securities and titles, and imposition of respective Currency Exchange penalties.

National Heritage Goods: The Nation's Cultural Heritage is constituted by all goods, that have special historic, artistic, aesthetic, fine arts, architectural, archaeological, environmental, ecological, linguistic, musical, filmic, scientific, testimonial, documentary, literary, bibliographical, and anthropologic value.

The goods belonging to the Nation's Cultural Heritage include objects from prehistoric times, the colonial times, the independence, the republic and contemporary times, that have been declared as cultural interest assets, pursuant to the assessment criteria determined by the Ministry of Culture to that effect.

Goods declared as national monuments, as well as goods that are considered archaeological heritage are considered as national interest assets.

Personal Effects: These are new or used products that a traveller may reasonably require for his/her personal use during the trip, taking into account the trip's circumstances.

Accompanied Luggage: This is luggage that enters or leaves with the traveller at the time he/she enters or leaves the country and which is made up by his/her personal effects and/or the products allowed.

Unaccompanied Luggage: This is luggage that enters or exits the country before or after the traveller arrives or leaves the country, which must be consigned in the name of the traveller. If the luggage already entered or is going to enter by cargo, declare such information in this form and inform the Customs Officer about this issue before leaving the customs area, otherwise the items must be taxed.

Temporary Import: Travellers are entitled to temporarily enter free of taxes, items for their personal or professional use or assets to be used during their stay in Colombia, provided this is declared upon arrival. When the traveller leaves, he/she must present such goods to the Customs Authority. The afore mentioned goods must be declared in this form.

Temporary Export: This is the export of domestic or taxed goods of items for personal or professional use, or assets to be used during their stay or that travellers leaving the country carry with them, and that they wish to import again when they return, with the same status, and without paying taxes. Such goods must be declared in this form.

You are entitled to bring into Colombia, in addition to your personal effects, merchandise under the following conditions:

FREE OF TAXES

TIME OF STAY ABROAD	VALUE OF GOODS IN DOLLARS	TYPE OF GOODS	MAXIMUM QUANTITY	TAX PAYABLE	TYPE OF LUGAGGE
Any time	US$1.500,00	Personal and family use goods	Non-commercial quantities	Free of taxes	Accompanied lugagge

NOTE: The exemption is only valid with luggage travelling whith the passenger.

SUBJECT TO TAXE PAYMENTS

5 days or more	US$2.500,00	Household articles whether or not they are electrical.		US$ 1.500.00 Tax (Free of taxes)	Accompanied luggage and
		Sporting goods	3 Units each	US$ 2.500.00 Paying 15% tax Once a year	unaccompanied luggage.
		Articles used by the traveller(s) in their occupation or profession.

Under age (18 years old) travellers may bring goods valued at 50% of the quotas above.

It is not allowed to travellers to enter vehicles and railroad material or automobiles, aircraft or aerodynes, balloons, airships, gliders, or any flying vehicles and/or their spare parts, weapons, ammunitions, explosives, transportation materials such as tires and spare parts for automobiles or machinery, except bicycles, wheelchairs, and baby carriages

NOTE 1: Goods that enter in this manner may not be sold, otherwise they are subject to seizure. If the goods declared in this form do not comply with the requirements demanded, they could be taxed. Please inform the Customs Officer.

NOTE 2: If goods that have to pay a single tax are not declared, such goods will be seized by the Customs Authority. Besides, luggage is reteined by the Customs Authority when goods that enter the country are different from the items declared, or when the quantity of goods exceeds the value allowed (see chart).
